Anita Kitchen opened the meeting

A motion was made approving the February meeting minutes. Motion by Leigh Turben, seconded by Tyna Brown -approved.

A motion was made accepting the Treasurer’s report. Motion by Tyna Brown, seconded by Lisa Duvall – approved.

Chief Crist presented information on how they interact with the residents and schools. He was congratulated on the efforts his employees made to get the Fire Levy passed.

Scott Schmid, ODOT District 7 gave a power point on Round-about.

Harrison Township reported on the Master Plan for the Community Garden. It was started with a grant from Dayton Development allowing us to tear down a building if we created a community garden. In turn the high school agreed to have their students create the garden.

Riverside is expecting some 30,000 visitors for the eclipse.

Representative Plummer reminded everyone that there are state funds available some seven hundred million dollars. The Senate is also working on their budget. Anyone who has a project should contact him within the next two weeks. This would normally be done through the Dayton Development Coalition, however in this case you can reach out to us directly.

All County offices will be open with the exception of some courts. The Sheriff's office has cancelled all vacations.

There is a company reaching out to military offering to assist them their DD214, charging $99.00. There is no need to pay for this service, the office of Veterans Affairs will do it at no charge.

Huber Heights is working on a social event for July or August.

Richard Shaw expressed his appreciation at being allowed to act as Executive Director.

Jack Jensen thanked everyone for their consideration and was anxious to return to being Executive Director in April. Jack thanked Bruce Duke for joining us.

In April I would like to invite those new representatives to stay over at the next meeting for a brief orientation. Lisa will talk to us about the Kettering Leadership academy. An academy that Bruce Duke created some thirty years ago.

A motion was made by Danielle Bradley, seconded by Tyna Brown to adjourn

NEXT MEETING April 24th– City of Centerville
